

The Heart of the Matter

Jeremiah 31:27-34

Key Thought

Then I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse you from all your filthiness and from all your idols. Moreover, I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; and I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will be careful to observe My ordinances. (Ezekial 36:25-27)

Yes, I am a senior...

I'm the life of the party...even if it lasts until 8pm.

I'm very good at opening childproof caps...with a hammer.

I'm usually interested in going home before I get to where I am going.

I'm smiling all the time because I can't hear a word you are saying.

I'm very good at telling a story...over and over and over and over and

I'm not really grouchy. I just don't like traffic, waiting, crowds, lawyers, loud music, unruly kids, barking dogs, politicians, and a few other things that I can't remember right now.

I'm a walking storeroom of amazing facts, I have just lost the key to the storeroom door.

I'm wrinkled, saggy, lumpy, and that is just my left leg.

I'm sure they are making adults much younger these days...as since when did they start letting kids be policemen?

I'm been wondering lately, if you're' only as old as you feel, how can I still be alive at 150?

Yes, I am a senior citizen, and I think I am having the time of my life.
