Jesus is to believers the one pearl of great price, for whom we are willing to part with all that we have. He has so completely won our heart, that it beats alone for Him – to His glory we would live, and in defense of His Gospel we would die – He is the pattern of our life, and the model after which we would sculpture our character. Paul’s words mean more than most men think. They imply that the aim and end of his life itself was Christ – nay, his life itself was Jesus – Jesus was his very breath, the soul of his soul, the heart of his heart, the life of his life...This alone is the true life of a Christian – its source, its sustenance, its fashion, its end...” – C.H. Spurgeon devotion on “For me to live is Christ.” Philippians 1:21
